THOR HAN

Fear manipulation / The Dries / Hitler's death / violet flame & St Germain / Native American tribes contacts with Ets / The Quran & Muhammad / Angels, Ets, Kryon / Coron / Afterlife / Portal persons / scattering or fractalizing a soul / Invisibility.

Message

Thor Han: I want to insist on the fact that you must not give up to fear. Some scary times are ahead, which will not last very long, but do not give out to fear. Do not allow fear to come into you, do not fear anyone, be aware of your own power, your power of action and decision for yourself, for your life, for the life of your families. However they try to impress you by fear, by threats, do not listen, keep on going with your life and do what you have to do, you who work to anchoring the light, do this, only this, keep fear at bay outside your homes. They will try to impress you, make you believe that you are obliged to obey, you are not, you are free individuals, you are one species, and you will not fight against each other. When you want to protest, protest in peace. When you want to go outside, enjoy being together. It is not a time for violence, it is a time for peace. It is not a time for fear, it is a time for trust. You will win this, we have assured the background to make your actions stable and efficient.

I know you are many to listen to me tonight, so I want to insist on this message: fear is manipulation and illusion, do not listen. Fear is their weapon. You are more powerful, your shields are made of light, fear cannot go through, this is what I want to say because I know what's coming. Do not be scared, all will be fine. There is an increase in the chaos, there is a change of system, I already told you and I insist that this coming two months will be very difficult because they will try to turn your heads, to make you believe that you must obey, but you are not obliged to obey. You obey to only one thing: the rule of life, the rule of the evolution, evolution is all, it is the greater law above all other laws. Political chaos, fights, false revelations, made to manipulate people, listen to your heart, listen to what you know is right, everything that incite you to violence is not right. What is right is what unites all humans together.

I will not tell you who is going to fight against whom, but I think you guess, the continent of North America will decide for the rest of the planet, there are ties in other countries, but all is centralized under the ground and in the sacred chambers of the continent I just named. We are helping you, you are not alone, you will not see us in the fight because we work in your back, holding you, pushing you with love and trust. We hope more than you do because we know what is ahead, we know that after the chaos the light from your star will seem at your eyes brighter, because at the end of the fight, at the end of the storm, peace is here. You are awakening at an exponential rate and this cannot be stopped, awareness is your shield, the last attempts of your enemies, and then it is gone. Do not be afraid, you are meant to have a wonderful future. It is not because I speak about fear that you must fear, I hope you understand what I say. Many of you on Terra are conditioned to tremble when you hear this word fear, this shouldn't, you should laugh and feel above it.

Q: You told me that the Aghraban Dries are planning to reveal themselves in 2022

Thor Han: It is a fight we have with them. Dries, like a few people in our Federation, are a problem because we welcomed them as a level two civilization, for their protection. Once they entered the Federation they revealed themselves as only interested by the trade agreements. They revealed themselves as an aggressive people, suddenly wanting to infect the very structure of the Federation. We didn't let them, but before expelling them we reviewed our judgment, and we preferred to keep them, trying to change them. If they are out of the Federation, they are uncontrollable. Because they are members we can control them. They have recurrent fights with their neighbors the Aramani, and we have to deal with this. The Dries want to take over Terra soon, but they are not very intelligent, they are rather instinctive. They think because the Ciakahrr Empire is retiring from Terra, so they can take the place. They are delusional. Do not be scared of the Dries, they will not take over your planet. We control them. They are of the fourth density. They still believe they can invade your planet, the problem is, if we leave them now, if we let them go out of the Federation, we have no more control over them, and we are obliged to fight them, we try to avoid war.

Q: If they abduct humans for reproduction and turn them into slaves, how are they able to be part of The Galactic Federation of Worlds?

Thor Han: They do this illegally, they do not do this openly as the Kiily-Tokurt for instance which are not any more part of the Federation, Dries do that in secret, and we try to catch them because they break the rules of the Federation, this is not tolerated but every time they do that, they do it in a certain way that we cannot prove they are doing it, but we know, the Armani, their neighbors are very subject to abduction because they are humanoids. The Dries are one of the problems we are about to solve, so I wouldn't worry about them.

Q: Did Hitler kill himself or did he flee to Argentina at the end of World War Two?

Thor Han: Oh, this Terran not many years ago died in Argentina country, so he didn't kill himself, this is legend, he wanted to flee to Antarctica but The Thula society didn't want him to follow because they didn't want his crazy mind to infect them again, they wanted to get rid of him, so he went to the country Argentina.

Q: What exactly is the Violet Flame of the Ascended Master Saint Germain?

Thor Han: I can tell you about the Violet Flame and what it is about. This master I never heard about. The Violet Flame is the color of the energy when you connect from your last door, what is for you the seventh chakra of your energy field: "Crown". When you connect to a higher self and higher density of existence, the color of this energy is very bright and purple. This vibration of energy which is created by the connection, takes sometimes an Ovoid shape, Lozenge, or informal flame. This transcends and transmutes the etheric field, etheric matter, etheric energy. This transmutes whatever encounters this flame as you call it. This energy puts you in contact with higher realms of consciousness, through it, you can elevate, this is a very beautiful thing to see, the color is a purple melted with dark blue and a bit of gold and white, but the main color is purple. We have a sort of similar thing, but this is always open for us, we do not create it by activating it, it is always activated, and it will be for you, when you will all be where you need to be in the fifth density, physically.

We are connected all the time and we only adjust and attune our connection. Whatever we do we just pay attention that sometimes this connection is closed, sometimes it is slightly open, and sometimes it is full beam. It depends on what we are doing, but you spoke about a person and I don't know this person, Saint is a Christian religious person isn't he?

Q: I don't think he's related to the Christian religion, People say he's an ascended master Saint Germain.

Thor Han: I do not know about this Terran man.

Q: Who are the the ET's that contacted the Native Americans called the Anasazi a very long time ago?

Thor Han: I heard this name, yes, they are reported in the list of people of this area in this place on this planet which were contacted people, in this list is all the people which were contacted by our Federation through your recent history. I would need to search who were the races who made contact with them.

Q: When contact is made, it goes through the GFW for approval?

Thor Han: Yes, if it is not approved, it means it would be a harmful contact. Normally we do not approve direct contact, but sometimes it is necessary to elevate the consciousness of a tribe or a group of Terrans and this is done very diplomatically, very specifically, we have our ways, not to be seen but to be understood. So yes, this list is about the good contacts we've made with these people, from different tribes all over the planet, and it can be many different species, only the species who have a representative in the Great Council are allowed to make contact with level one civilization, level one civilization this is where you are before interplanetary travel. Interstellar travel, when you are able to leave your star system is level three.

Q: What do you know about the Quran and the prophet Muhammad?

Thor Han: Oh this is about one of your religions. Muslim religion was a very peaceful and balanced philosophy which was, as the Christian religion, turned away from its original purpose and politicized. This man called Mohammed wanted a balanced country, in this time the world in this place was chaotic, had no rules and no laws, it was ruthless, it was very difficult to live in these times, although there were a lot of good thinkers and philosophers, but the social laws were not very good. This man established a higher level of civilization and culture, he was a leader and because he was very intelligent, he was taken for Saint or as you call: Prophet. This religion wasn't a religion, it was a Codex of laws and of behavior. It was teaching peace and love and unity, same as Issa that you call Jesus, just tried to give, to help people. Codes giving higher understanding. And because Terrans in these times were not able to understand fully the meaning of higher concepts, they were taught with parables, legends, folk tales that they could understand, like imaginary tales. It could make its way to their subconscious and they would learn from it, but unfortunately they didn't learn quick enough. The people in power in this part of the world took over this Codex, at the start aimed to help people to open consciousness and become better humans, learn about respect, about behavior. But it turned out not very well, this man Mohammed was a good leader, he tried to teach good behavior to his people, what has been done and written afterwards has escaped from his original message.

Unfortunately Terrans are such that power seduces them, this is the big fight against ego, ego is the enemy of the evolution of your consciousness, but you're fighting well, you are learning.

Q: So did the Quran get changed like the bible did?

Thor Han: Yes, there was a core of writings which was taken off partially and modified by people to their liking. I know no more about this, but this is a very interesting story.

Q: Do you all follow a religion?

Thor Han: No we have passed this stage. When you leave your world, you discover that the universe is vast and multiple and that there are no gods above your head, because you are travelling in all directions, there is no above there is no below, and all the realms and densities are interconnected one into the other, there is no low, there is no high, there is only difference of frequencies. When we leave our world and we start to travel, not only in space but inter-dimensionally and inter-consciously, we realize that there is something that flows and animate everything with consciousness and life. It is everywhere, it is the air you breathe when you are on a world, it is the beauty you see when the stars are billions in oceans of colors, it is the joy you feel in your heart to find your family again, that you have left for a very long time, it is the beauty in the eyes of a child, it is the harmony of colors in a Nebula, it is the symphony of sound that comes from the center of every galaxy, a music that you can hear only when you are in space. Everything that gives you an emotion comes from somewhere and everywhere at the same time, this is Source.

Source is the start and the end of everything because it has no beginning and no end, it is spherical and infinite in the same time. Source is not a singularity, it's an omnipresence inhabiting everything, rocks, flesh, everything. We do not have a religion, we do not have a dogma, we believe with our heart what we see and what we experience. When we attune to who we are, we attune to source and its flow. If we should worship something it would be life, consciousness. Consciousness is life. There are different levels of consciousness, a rock even is conscious and there isn't a part in this multiverse that is not animated by source, even the ones who do harm to each other like the Ciakahrrs for instance, they are part of it. That they connect with it is another story, but they are made of it, even if they ignore it. Consciousness doesn't need a physical shape to incarnate, consciousness is free, consciousness incarnates into an avatar when it needs to do a certain job or experience, such as learning, or to experience interaction, but consciousness is not dependent from an envelope.

I want to add something: we talked about Angels last time, I was a bit sad I didn't have the time to talk more about them. I told you that we believe that you put in the word Angel many things, it is like a cup and there is a name painted on it: "Angel", and in this cup. In this cup you put every phenomenon that you do not understand. But you need to sort out what is in this cup; there is us in this cup, we are not Angels, and there are also higher spirits of your planet, in this cup. Higher spirits work for the greater good of your planet. I'm thinking about Kryon, he is wonderful and magnificent, but he's not an Angel, he's a higher being, he's a Guardian, he's a Spirit Guardian maintaining the balance of the Etheric Grid of your planet, he is not on his own, there are other ones. He looks like an Angel, but he is not one, his density level is 12 next to the source.

Q: Who is Coron?

Thor Han: Our friend, he is from Dakoorat and he is a Pleiadian like us. His race migrated from Ahel, from the Lyran colonies, and became very high, in their density. Coron can reach up to the 12th density if he wishes to, but he is actually living in the seventh density. He is what you would call a Pleiadian of Light which is a funny name, but he is from the Pleiades, and he looks very shiny to us. Him and his people are a very powerful species, they can travel by consciousness, they reached the state where they do not need a body anymore, but they do to interact with us because they are part of the Federation. They need a physical anchor to do what they have to do, so they still have their bodies, but they easily go out of it, so that is what Coron is. And a knowledgeable old wise man.

Q: Can you tell us more about Kryon please? A lot of people on Earth follow his channelers work, and I'm sure they would love to hear more about your work with him.

Thor Han: Well, I have had the privilege to see him twice. I haven't interacted with him, although I have worked in harmony with him. Kryon is one of the higher beings who look after the balance of the magnetic and etheric grid of the planet, We have shifts, and I have had so many shifts looking after the grid, we were assigned to certain points and notes that we had to maintain, rebalance and at two occasions Kryon showed himself to us, because we needed to interact with the lines in correlation with what he was doing. He appeared like a cloud of shimmering energy. When he connects with certain Terrans I know, he can appear himself as a humanoid, but this is not his shape, his shape is a cloud of light with iridescent moving colors. This is the shape and aspect of his consciousness, what radiates from him. He's an amazing being of love because you know, the more powerful and the higher are these beings, the more love they radiate. Love is the interaction and the power they radiate, many Terrans should connect with him, he knows everything about everything on this planet below. I was touched, and I have seen magnificent beings in my life, but I have to say, seeing and meeting Kryon was two moments in my life I will never forget. He is magnificent, it touched my heart. Myrah was with me, and she stopped talking for a while, imagine Myrah couldn't talk? :) It happened, it took Kryon to make it happen, but it happened, Val Nek is with me, and he's laughing, he knows her so well.

Q: Are Angels at his level?

Thor Han: I feel uncomfortable to use the word Angel because it's a cup name, or you say bucket name that contains anything that you cannot understand that looks humanoid shiny. I never met any being with wings as a higher spirit. There are species with wings, but they are species like us, they are not higher beings of a superior density of frequency. There are although higher spirits in this universe, higher spirits who look after the balance of the space continuum, they look like a Kryon, you have asked me about Metatron last time, he is one of them, his consciousness, he is one of the Guardians of your galaxy, he is very powerful, he is very knowledgeable consciousness, he knows everything about every world. He is not a person, his consciousness is very high, and he keeps the access door to the center of your galaxy which is a portal towards Source, Source ignites everything.

Q: What does the soul experience at the time of death?

Thor Han: They is an intermediary place where first you go because when you leave your plane of existence, the dimension and the density of your avatar, you need to re-attune to the density of your light being, of your soul as you call it. When this happens, when the avatar ceases to function, the light being is leaving this avatar. Then, this depends on where your soul matrix is, if your soul matrix is on the same planet as the avatar you will directly go into the highest sphere of this planet, it is a sphere intricate into this one for instance, talking about Terra. This is an intermediate place, from there you will choose to come back in another avatar or to leave the sphere, go somewhere else, either another soul matrix, I mean world, or if you're finished you can go back to Source and melt in the consciousness of the multiverse. This is a choice you make. If you belong to the soul matrix of the planet you have incarnated, you stay there, or you decide to go further, but you need to pass by this intermediate state, this intermediate place. If you do not belong to the soul matrix of this planet you do not go to this intermediate place, you leave directly to connect with the soul matrix of your original world. You will be attracted like a magnet to the soul matrix of your original world. You will travel not the distance, you will travel inter-dimensionally and the accurate word is resonance travel, when you have an anchor point somewhere else you just transport there. When you do not have a body, body needs interdimensional travel, they need a device, any technology they need travel distance, that's what avatars do but resonance travel is the travel by consciousness. Resonance is two anchor points wherever they are in the universe, vibrating at the same frequency, connecting, it's an echo, we call it resonance, it is the same when you leave the avatar you go back to your soul matrix, if you wish to. If you have decided already that you will come back, you may stay, but normally this is very rare. You have first to go back to your soul matrix. If you want to go back to Terra, you decide from there.

There is a special rule, you know there is this program many of you are part of, the Envoys, all right, you call them starseed. Not all but most of you have left their body in stasis and your light being travelled to avatars on Terra for instance, this is a good example. In this case this is an interrupted existence, a paused existence. You went for a mission, you will go back to this body in stasis which is another avatar, but this avatar belongs to the same frequency as your soul matrix because it is where you belong, so you will feel more natural and more comfortable to be there. You will travel by resonance into the receptacle of your body, the receptacle is something very special, it's a device, it looks for you, like a blue crystal, and when the soul comes back into it, it radiates. It is inserted into the avatar that awaits, this is a transfer device, it assures that the transfer is happening well. For instance this is what will happen to you, you will travel by resonance to the planet where you belong, once you disincorporate, there is no distance to bring us wherever we want, that is what Coron does for instance because we were talking about him, when he is not in his body, he can be anywhere in a blink of an eye.

Q: Can someone be here as one person and as some other human somewhere else at the same time?

Thor Han: No, this is not logical, you have one only soul which is not fragmentary, it works for everything in the universe, if consciousness incarnates in an avatar whatever avatar it is, a planet, a being anything, it is whole one, cannot be separated.

Q: In New-Age circles, they talk about how we have fractals of ourselves in other places and different multiple realities going on at the same time.

Thor Han: A fractal is a small part of a bigger thing and we are all fractals of source. There is a misunderstanding about the word "fractal", fractal is not fragmented pieces, it is a shape or pattern generated from a wider one, for instance see the waves on your oceans, you take one and the pattern will repeat inside it indefinitely, a fractal is an infinite reproduction of a pattern, it is not fragmented, it is generated by a bigger pattern which will generate its total similar alike but smaller and smaller and smaller, it is difficult for me to explain to you fractals, but fractals are not something that is scattered, it is something that is generated as a repetitive pattern.

Q: You mentioned that some of us are portals and those people are a target for the dark forces, so is there any way they can protect themselves from being targeted?

Thor Han: This is difficult to answer. Once you activated your portal ability, you are visible. The only way is to make yourself invisible by elevating your frequency, but the portal will remain open. A portal it is the ability to travel inter-dimensionally, in parallel universes. Individuals who are living portals are of course a target from the lower density beings because if they capture the person, they can use the person to travel themselves wherever they want. If they enslave the mind of the person and make them obedient, there are no specific way to protect yourself, to be invisible is obtained by raising your vibration. We always go back to the same topic.

Q: some people say they can multiply themselves a trillion times all over the universe without an energetic connection back to their body, can you comment please?

Thor Han: No, this is imaginary, you can expand your consciousness infinitely very far out in the universe but as far as your consciousness will be expanded you will still be one, you can expand your energy field, expand your being, but you will always be one being as expanded as you are. You cannot scatter yourself.

Q: What about cloaking yourself where you cover yourself in mirrors?

Thor Han: Cloaking is a change in frequency, a slight dissonance in frequency in your energy field will make you invisible, this is the technology we mainly use to cloak ships, modifying the frequency of a tiny, slightly unit. It requires technology but for individuals it is much more work because you are your own technology, you are your own device, so this requires more effort, it is doable, we can also apply the ship technology onto our bodies, but you may misuse it.

Q: Did you by any chance write down any five words you wanted to tell us for today?

Thor Han:

1. Oraa - Unity.
2. Naznen – Hope. There are different kinds of hope. Hope for something to come your way, hope for something to come for others, from you to others, you hope for something to happen, Naznen is the hope for something to happen, and I was using this word to talk about your race.
3. Orrman - Victory, is a victory in war acquired bravely.
4. Juninia -Peace in the heart after the storm has passed, the silence mirror of a perfect lake.
5. Shushka - Water.
