

THOR HAN

Message

Thor Han: What is happening at the moment is that a lot of places on Terra have been cleaned, you can feel it in the air as you speak, in the air, in the vibration, the atmosphere, the force around you. The undergrounds of your planet are not yet all cleaned, but a lot of places have been liberated. I cannot unfortunately disclose the places that are still at war in the undergrounds of your planet, but let me tell you that it is in a very good way and the secret groups in your government are panicking. My message today is to hold on, to your high vibration, hold on hope, hold on strength. Do not surrender to the Dark because they will try to make you believe that you are lost, that you have no other solution than to go their way, and unfortunately a lot of Terrans are doing this at the moment. I know Annax wanted to give his point of view which is always slightly different from mine. I am more practical; Annax is more in the spheres of the spirit. I want to tell you not to allow yourself to be vulnerable; the forces of the dark who insert anger into the heart of the Terrans, they are trying to split you in different entities, parts, molecules of molecules of the same body, they are trying to divide you, they are trying to dismantle your unity because it is only with unity that you are going to win this war, unity unifying your hearts in peace, loving each other of your same species, this is important. Stop giving out to anger against your species, against the races that are part of the same species as yours, you are not different races, Maytra and Zetas are different races, Terran human and Terran human are same race, species, your races are not that different, stop this, love each other, you are all on the same little planet. I wish I would give you an image of where I am transmitting this message from. Stop fighting among yourselves, brothers, sisters, children, parents, you are all related because you are all born from the same ground, the same rock in space evolving around the star. This is really, really saddening to see so many Terrans giving out their energy, their lives to dark forces. Stop talking about it, stop spreading fear and violence, you will not be divided! Unite in love and in peace, all equals as one species. This is my message, this is a message from my heart and a message from my colleagues here. We are talking about it a lot, but we have hope because we know who you are.
