

Meditation of the Laughing Child by Annax

Children of light, royalty among the stars. Clouds of sparkly stardust.
Your souls are shimmering on the disk of the galaxy. Picture of a thousand suns.
You are dancing in the greater community of the galaxy.

Egaroth are looking after the balance of Nataru, alongside four other races composing our council.
All looking after peace, justice and the elevation of consciousness in this galaxy.
Our work is led where darkness dwells in a disbalance level.
When the ratio of darkness is creating a disease and a hole in the piece of this web of this galaxy.
A hole in the fabric of the beautiful dress of Nataru.
We intervene and as much as we can, we repair what has been altered.
We give back the opening, the keys of consciousness to the populations attained by darkness.
We have been helping you on Terra for a very long time.
We are not a military force. We are a spiritual force.
Wisdom and science are our weapons.

The Council of Five is looking after you in the silence, not naming ourselves.
Never you hear about us but dance you are with us.
Many of you are sometimes coming on our ships.
We are in silence. You do not hear us, you do not see us, but we are here.
We educate children in their dreams to the millions of memories and their possibilities that are contained in their souls. You are children of light. All the children know us, the new wave.
We are taking many of you with softness, respect and care.
Repairing your DNA, reactivating your abilities, reconnecting you to who you are.
This is our work.

The Galactic Federation/Oraa Nataru Shari works alongside ourselves, maintaining peace and balance in the galaxy. We are seekers of peace. We walk by the ethics and the laws of evolution.
In my world Darias we cultivate the connection to Source in every little act of every day.

All the little actions that you do from the moment you wake up to the moment you go to sleep.
All these little acts, they need to be connected to the Source.
Do everything with a smile in your heart even if it is a hard thing to do.

In war, fight with a smile in your heart, not of joy, a smile that forces victory.
If you manage your heart to smile inside while you fight, you manifest victory.
Brave warriors have acquired wisdom, the wisdom of the battlefield.
Our battlefield as Egaroth is on the spiritual level.

We are here in Uru An Na area because the darkness is heavier than anywhere else in this galaxy.
This is here where we are needed, not where the light shines but where the darkness dwells.
This is where our work is. It is very difficult.

We protected Darias and Zagara by a frequency shield lifting our frequency into a higher density.
Darias are shifted to the seventh density.
Then the Nebu cannot reach out to it, it is invisible to them.
From this higher density we are lifting as much as we can the frequency of the Uru An Na zone.
How do we do this? It is by raising our own frequency, and we broadcast it from the seventh density
These waves of high frequencies disrupts the work of the darkness.
It lowers down the power of the Nebu, it lowers down their aggressivity.

The Higher frequency that is broadcasted to tame down aggressivity, takes away a little bit of evil in the heart of some beings.

We taught this technique to the Galactic Federation supervisors, now they know how to broadcast higher frequencies to elevate some places in this galaxy.

They do this in your star system.

They broadcast high frequencies on Terra to take away the forces of the occupants, Nebu Orion group and reptile Ciakahrr.

High frequencies take away their power. They're doing it in all your star system now, also on Mars.

You need to raise your frequency and when Thor Han tells you to do it, this is why:
because you become a beacon of high frequency. It is not only for you.

It is for everything that is around you.

Do not care about anything other than raising your frequency and this is a short way to do it.

Hear the laughter within your heart. In your chest there is a laughing child.

Remember a moment in your childhood when you were laughing about something funny or maybe a moment of happiness. Hear the child laughing.

It is like an echo coming from far away in your memory. This laughter takes over all your body.

The child is laughing louder and as the sound of the laughter of the child becomes louder, it becomes closer within. Laugh with this child. Nothing else matters. This child makes you laugh.

You have the right to laugh, you are authorized to laugh, you are entitled to laugh.

It shakes your body.

This is like a fountain of joy, and the more laughter, the more sound creates color and light.

It is now a golden light sparkle with a million stars that every contraction of laughter generates.
Every contraction of laughter sends out a wave of sparkly golden stars outwards of high frequency.

This is a very high frequency.

When you find a laughing child within, nothing can harm you, nothing can hurt you.
You are invincible and everything you do has the strength of your maximum possibilities.

Laugh inside and keep outside the armor of the warrior.

The strength of the laughing child is the strength of the warrior.

Yes, you feel this energy in your chest. This is the high frequency.

This is the highest weapon, and now you are the beacon of higher frequencies.

Pulsing waves of light coming from only you. You are the generator.
