Q: About parallel lives, how does that work, and why does it happen?

Thor Han: Parallel realities are not parallel dimensions. They are parallel realities related to your psyche, your consciousness. When you create an event in your life, you create it as well in the dimension of your consciousness, it is going to live there. If you maintain it, if you nourish it, it will keep on living. It is a parallel life within your consciousness, your consciousness is something much more complex than what you think, your consciousness has many layers, not one, it has different states of existence. Some may be very real. These parallel realities are different pathways of your future, you create them, and you live parallel with them within your consciousness, you can have access to them or not. If you stop nourishing them they dissolve and cease to exist. Parallel realities are not parallel dimensions, parallel universe is something else, parallel realities are parallel timelines which live in the consciousness of every individual, this is in the sphere of the consciousness, I don't know if I explain this clearly, I try to find simple words.

Every individual consciousness is linked to the Collective Consciousness, so if you create a chaotic parallel reality, an informal universe made of phantasms and chimeras, regrets and dreams, all of this embeds around the planet into the psyche of your species, as part of it, but not all. We train ourselves not to create it because this is diverting us from the real reality. If I may say, we could do it, but we use this power to manifest our future and manifest what we want to be, we focus our power on something else, not our dreams, not our regrets but what we really want to manifest and recreate it, and this manifests in the future. Let's take this example of this couple who have separated, him as long as he creates this parallel reality, he will affect her, and she will not be free, she will have a link with him, and she will be pulled back and not able to be happy with her new husband totally because something will feel wrong, you need sometimes to let it go, she needs to sever the link of the heart, it is working still because she still has feelings for him, if she stops having feelings for him the link will bounce on her and not hook at her anymore, it will be close circuits around him which will eventually die because there will be not any response from her, she needs to let him go. There are three hooks, three doors in your beings where you can be hooked or where you can have a link with a cord. By the heart and the painful or pleasurable emotions, by your coccis or your crotch, the sexual and animal pulsions, sexual fantasies, and the third one is the spirit and mind, the link is in the middle of your forehead, what you call your third eye. This is a link to the spirit which is not involving animal pulsions or either emotions. These are the three chords you can link and hook with someone. When you project it towards someone, you project it by the front, and if the other person is consenting, they will receive it by the front of their being. If they are not consenting or not aware, this will get them hooked at their back...headache, backache, genital problems, this is the result of unaware hooks. There is so much more to tell about all these energetic psyche techniques. Sometimes you have the three cords, but sometimes you have just one, twin flames have the three consenting and fusional. You need to cut animal desires, love, regrets, anger and memories, intellectual affinities, regrets are the most powerful fuel as you say to create parallel realities, have no regrets, this will be my word, heal your regrets, live in a way that you will not have regrets, say to those you want to say the things you want to say to them, do what you want to do, what makes you happy and nourishes you.

Q: How about famous people or celebrities who have many people fantasizing about them, does it affect them?

Thor Han: This is why in our societies we do not cultivate personality cults, it is toxic and dangerous, ego must be tamed. I think it's pathetic, celebrities who use their physics with a lot of bodywork or what you call makeup and this is to attract attention and popularity but as well it attracts sexual animal desires and millions of these desires are hooked at them like tentacles, you do not want to be celebrity, this is toxic, this is why we do not have entertainments like you have on Terra, we do not have celebrities, this is nonsense for us because ego is something that we do not cultivate. We cultivate personal development, personal blossoming and empowerment but not in the way your entertainers do on Terra, do you see the difference?

Q: Do parallel lives cause the butterfly effect?

Thor Han: This is happening from a metaphorical point of view because everything you do affects the whole, a butterfly is not going to change the course of the winds, but this is a metaphor that any energy pulse affects the whole universe. You affect yourself, people you are involved with, it can include your fantasy life and as I told you earlier, the Collective Consciousness is affected more or less but this is not going to change it. It is if you want the bin of your consciousness of your species, a bin is not a bad thing, a bin is the place where things are recycled, where they end their lives and they are recycled into something new, the bin is a good thing. Regarding the chimera worlds we create by our own desires and regrets, there are different ways of seeing reality, but there is only one reality. The power of your consciousness is incredible, you do not have a whole complete idea of its extended power. This is a kind of knowledge you need to learn by experiencing it, and by following a slow transformation process, otherwise you may get lost into it, and you may harm yourself, and your consciousness. This knowledge must not be given but experienced, and this is part of the process of opening and awakening, of, activation, and this takes time. I know, many people ask: how can I be activated? Just follow your natural path and this will come, everything takes time, transformation takes time, you cannot be activated by switching on a button, activation follows a process of maturation. Patience is also a teaching.

Q: What about Déjà vu, could that come from a parallel reality?

Thor Han: Well I believe this could have two different causes. Either a previous life reminiscence or the fact that you are aware. We are able to sense the close future within the range of five of your Terran days as an average calculation, it can be a bit less a bit more. We may be able to see that something in the space continuum around us is a bit disbalanced, and there is a bridge into your future. So we can see ahead for a few seconds, and this is disturbing. In the case where you've never been there before, but you think you have because the future is part of the past, I told you it is not linear, it is a whole.

Q: About Valiant Thor who allegedly met with president Eisenhower, do you know anything about this man?

Thor Han: Yes I do. I haven't met him but I know he's actually living in your solar system. He was sent with three of his crew to help your governments to understand that they needed to go towards universal peace and federating. He was invited by one of your governments to stay on residence, and he stayed three of your years. He was an officer from the Federation, and he belongs to the race of the Taal. He lives in a colony on a planet we named Naara, and that you name Venus. We have many colonies there, the Federation has an outpost which I do not speak a lot about because it is a secret, not very secret because we are talking about this, our enemies know about it, but we are developing some scientific technologies there. I would say that there is a scientific outpost of the Federation there, and there are many races involved. There are other outposts on this planet because it is a great place to build cities, because there's a shield around the planet, created by the atmosphere, that makes it impossible to pierce through. The weather conditions are horrendous and this is an extra protection. Most of our bases there, underground cities that resemble to metallic domes. There is a lethal atmosphere on this planet. There is nonetheless a special kind of life which is very primitive. There was life before, more developed, but bad things happened and now it is only a cellular life and small mammals, that couldn't live on Terra. This planet is very well protected by its shield, and you cannot know what is under it,. The day you will land on it, you will see nothing of us because we are well hidden, so to go back to this Val Thor, he was a Taal officer from the Federation.

Q: Is it possible for The Galactic Federation of Worlds to create a true history of Terra expanding on the information in "a gift from the stars"? A guidebook would be an invaluable asset in this work.

Thor Han: This is a huge work rewriting your history, we have everything in our database, this is not a work I would have the time to conduct unfortunately because it is a work of many years but if I speak to Ardaana, maybe she would find the idea good although to work with someone else, although this work is already being done with the Selosi, the Telosi and the Ummit, they are unveiling your past slowly, slowly because it is not up to us to give you this specific knowledge, you need slowly to uncover it yourselves because every uncovering of your past there is a learning, there is a teaching. The Telosi have put all these devices, the Telosian crystals as you call them the Lemurian seed crystals, and I think Mirkak, Val Nek's partner, has spoken about it already but not only. The Agarthan Kingdoms are now liberating sites from the past, from the melting ices, from the moving sands and the twirling winds, your past is unveiling.

Q: Is there a king of Erra?

Thor Han: We have a government and we have a royal family who do not really rule. There is a council where they have a part in. We do not call one king, but there are numerous elders which are the royal family. I wouldn't consider it as a king. It is not a monarchy, the Taals have a monarchy, they love monarchy, Ahil have a more federated way of ruling themselves.

Q: How do you open your third eye and if you open it before you awaken what could happen?

Thor Han: Consciousness awakening, but also you can do this with sound or with energy work mechanically, but the best is to wait until it opens, during the process of your awakening. If you open it before you awaken, it will not work very well, you cannot really see well and that's it, or you can force it with energy and sound, you can do it by directing a beam of energy on it and creating an opening spiral. Because all your energy centers are spirals, they are portals that work dynamically as spirals. Sunwise direction is the opening.

Q: Do you know anything about the 10 days of darkness we are expecting?

Thor Han: You need to specify what type of darkness these manipulators are talking about, do they try to scare people by saying that your star is going to switch off or by darkness ruling on Terra?

Q: This is about the internet will go down and everything will go down and nothing will be working.

Thor Han: This is fear manipulation, they will not put down the only tool that allows them to control you all, Facebook will always work because it is the best tool their information services used to control everyone, it will never go down for this reason, one day something will replace it, and it will die of its own because people will get less interested in it and something better will come up.

Q: Someone asking about the MIEC.

Thor Han: It is in the book we've written together, and I have told her everything about it. I will just say this institution is the alliance of the Terran hidden governments and your extraterrestrial enemies, our common enemies, and it controls everything, all the industries and all the medias, this is all I have to say today.

Q: Are there such a thing as soul contract signed to be abducted and to surrender?

Thor Han: Let me tell you, there are things in what you just said that nearly triggered my peaceful state of mind. You know I'm also a warrior, sometimes things can trigger my warrior side. Well these are manipulations! Let me explain to you, it happens that when you choose to embody a new avatar, you make contracts in order to fulfil a mission, this contract can involve events and can involve other beings. Now in regard to the abductions, it is not always agreed, when you go incarnate in the new avatar you agree to challenges, trials and events that will awaken you and teach you and help you fulfil your mission, this can involve loss, grief, happy things, alien abductions, accidents, anything, you choose, and you make agreements about it. Now let us take the problem on the other side, from a different point of view. Abductions are not all agreed, you can agree for many things, but one thing is not agreed by everyone, when you agree to be abducted it is particular, it is because you will need it in your mission, but all abductions are not agreed. I really want to make the difference, most of them are not, some are because they are part of a path of life, part of a contract but not all, when a being speaking on behalf of our federation says that you have no will, no power on being abducted because you agreed for it, you will never fight it, you will agree to be abducted and that's what they want! They want you to have no will, no power, because all they want is your consent. And this is manipulation, this is nearly... I'm calming down now because I know the beings who do that, I know them very well, and it is upsetting that Terrans believe them, they speak through genuine people, everything that tells you that you have no power, or you must fear, or you need to accept fear, that you need to accept as a victim to be abducted because you agreed for it, this is untrue! You have the power to say no, by your will !

Q: Could you please develop about agreeing for the hybridization program?

Thor Han: Yes, you may agree on many things, you may agree to give hybrid children, hybrid children are not always on a bad agenda. There are other cases when you agree to be abducted in order to experience suffering, in order to teach you something, or that your suffering benefits others for the greater good of your species. There may be different reasons, my point was that you can agree to be abducted before you come, but then all abductions are not agreed, this was my point and I calm down, I am not on the battlefield any more. And I miss it.

Q: Pleiadians appear to have decent muscle mass with higher oxygen levels versus Terrans, do Pleiadians lift weights?

Thor Han: Genetic, what we eat and health, we do not exercise, it is how we are, it is our race is genetically made like this. We were born like this, it is who we are.

Q: Thanks from everyone to you for being here for us.

Thor Han: I took this really at heart because I have understood all the good it does and that all these questions need to be answered, and I apologize to have been a bit nervous, angry, you have seen me angry, you know it passes, these are reactions because I do not want to see you suffering and being lost, this is a process, this is a learning you need to experience all these lies and all this manipulation to understand what it is, and now you have tasted it, you know, and you can walk away from it, The darkness which is made of lies and fear, fear is the signature of the dark ones, fear is where your enemy lies, walk away with a smile, in peace, this is important. Peace is the only way to walk away.
