

THOR HAN
Merkabah / Envoy Program/ Psyops

Message

Thor Han: First of all, do not be anxious nor worried, certainly not worried, all is working for the awakening of your species. What was hidden has come to the time of revelation, what was hidden is now coming up into light and light will burn them, people of your planet are not all awakened, it is not all their fault because they have been subject to mind control, they need to break the illusion that they have been brought up with, they need to see, they need to open their eyes and understand, a lot of people in this species doesn't yet see, they need more, they will have more, but this is not all, in order to be exterminated the dark forces need to be seen and when everybody sees, they will be ended. Now I ask you to trust that in the end all will be well, these are not going to be easy times but necessary times for the awakening of your consciousness. Many of you see and know, and those who see and know are impatient, be patient that your brothers, your sisters, your families awaken, be still, be peaceful, trust and fight for what seems right to you, fight with everything you can but violence fight, by exposing truth, fight by radiating love, fight by spreading peace, unify your species. No more groups fighting against each other, that is what they want, build instead of destroying, build instead of destroying, do you understand? Build your future, also I wasn't willing to say that to you, but I think this should be said, more repeated, many times I told you, do not listen to anything that induces in your mind and heart fear, be it, your mainstream media, be it people on your YouTube who say inducing fear, who say scary topics, who say things that are untrue and that make you anxious, do not listen to these people, we have as an ethic to help you raise your vibration because once you raise your frequency you vibrate on a higher level, and you are unreachable, uncontrollable, no one can mind control you when you are in a frequency higher than their devices, you understand? Their devices of mind control scattered all over the planet with a mother head in the US underground, these relayed devices mind control, if you are on the same frequency which is the frequency of fear, we work very hard at helping you to raise your frequency above the frequency of fear, so anything that will scare you or induce fear to you doesn't come from us, be very careful, work your common sense, if something you hear leaves a bad taste on your tongue, do not swallow it, refuse it, make your choices, and the best of the choices is to follow your own heart and reason.

Q: Someone I know was doing a meditation and at some point heard someone scream at him: "put on your damn mask" and then he saw the face of someone with a mask on, and he was shocked. He knew that it was mind control. Do they deposit those thoughts in the collective consciousness or are the thoughts coming from machines?

Thor Han: What you received was from a device, it was broadcasted. You can send out to the collective consciousness of Terran species positive thoughts, this will reach out to everyone, the collective unconscious of your species is like the web around your planet, it's a grid, and it is connected to everything, everyone is connected, it is the soul of humanity, if you send beauty, an impulsion of awakening, love and peace to this collective and conscious the soul of this species, it will have an effect and I encourage you all to do this, it is very good.

Q: Did Nikola Tesla come from Venus?

Thor Han: He was not from your planet, he discovered it later, he is from Naara - Venus. I think this will not be declassified by {...}. What they “declassify” are jokes, really, they will never declassify the real things, why would they put themselves in trouble?

Q: Which off-world races are the greatest healers, what specific methods do they use, and what might we learn from them to help heal humanity?

Thor Han: When you reach a certain level of conscious evolution you have the ability to heal, the more you grow in evolution the more you heal powerfully and broadly. Many species, an extremely large number of them, on different levels. I cannot name one in particular for healing, it depends on what sort of healing you want to perform, biological tissue healing, emotional healing, energetic healing, etheric healing, dimensional healing, this is a vast answer, this would take a long time for me to go through each of these races, there are myriads and about the different techniques, I do not know all about this.

Q: Tell me please about the Merkabah activation.

Thor Han: Well, it is a law in this galaxy because in some it is different, in this galaxy as in most of them you need to spin in the sense of the gravity, you need to spin the gravitational direction which is from left to your right, clockwise as you say, this is an activator, this creates life.

Q: Yes I know, it is a universal law. The top pyramid goes clockwise and the bottom, the opposite.

Thor Han: It depends on where you want to go, if you just want to protect yourself it is still, if you want to travel in this dimension, it is the same direction up and down, if you want to travel interdimensionally in parallel universe you spin both counter and this will project you in a parallel dimension, but you need not do this, this is dangerous, just spin it top and bottom on the same dynamics, left to right, if you do both counter dynamics you may lose yourself, and you may find yourself in another parallel reality and I wouldn't advise that with your level of evolution you do this, some may do it because they have the skills for that, but the common Terrans please do not play with that.

Q: Will the pyramids all over the world be functional ever again, and who would repair them back into working condition?

Thor Han: They may, not all, some are not able to be reactivated, they're all too ruined and not all pyramids on your planet are devices, although some of them can. We hope you do it yourselves. When you will discover how they work, it will mean that you will have integrated the ancient knowledge and we really hope for this. Telosians are helping a lot and the Selosi as well, Ummit are sending a lot of data to many of you, especially engineers, so we are helping you finding the answers. We will be very proud of you when you manage to do all this.

Q: Given that the current Earth governments are literal mind control slavery systems, what kind of governance and leadership structure do they have on your home world that we can apply to the new Earth?

Thor Han: I would say, you need to federate peaceful individual states federating in a planetary federation, this is what you need to do, we all have done this on all our worlds, part of The Galactic Federation of Worlds because if you do not do this you remain in a stage of primitive warfare against each other, you need to unify, not with one leader ruling them all but with a council with one councillor per state and a council deliberating on peaceful affairs and constructive projects, no more disputes, no more struggles, all as one peaceful species, this is what you need to do, if you ask about my planet Erra, we have a royal family, and we have a council with the government, the royal family doesn't play a big role, they are more like a cast of protectors, and they represent the species diplomatically, but the council takes the decisions, this is what we have on our planet, my planet, this is not the case for all the other planets of the Ashara system, the Taal have a royalty as well, the Noor do not have royalty. Dakooru do not have royalty, both have councils, there isn't a common council of Ashara, every planet has its own decisions and agendas, we are independent because we are different.

Q: Can you tell the Terrans about this fear nonsense that is going on at the moment: going to have to get onto ships in order to live through catastrophic events, war etc?

Thor Han: There is no reason to fear, all of this has been put into your mind by manipulation, all of this that you fear is not real, it is invented by beings manipulating other beings to reach out vulnerable people. May this be a lesson. People of Terra: be quiet, calm and happy. These things will not occur, this is all illusion. May this benefit those who are living in controlled fear, people must stop listening to this nonsense. The timeline is now stable.

Q: Do any other beings in existence have tattoos and body piercing?

Thor Han: There are other species who do tattoos as tribal recognition marks. Yes, this exists, humanoids or Gray that you call species do this, some reptilian species have recognition tattoos, body marks, I will rather say, yes, they do.

Message about love

Thor Han: You know when a body is aching there is a magical thing that can ease the ache, ease the pain and make you feel stronger, when a child is hurting the love of a mother can ease the pains because love coming from someone else that is respected and loved, gets through the physical biological skin and body, and reaches the inner being, the true love as genuine, as the love of a mother or a lover reaches out to the inner being, and through the inner being to the consciousness, and when the consciousness is touched by the grace of love the consciousness starts to radiate this love throughout all the levels and the envelopes of the being and heals even the tissues, love is not only an emotion, love is not only a feeling, it is an energy, it is a frequency, it is happening for your species, it is aching, is in fear, is a child afraid of the dark because the child sees the monsters moving as shadows in the dark, the child holds onto his bed scared that the monster would come and eat the child, what can cast the shadows away? Is if the child knows the presence of the mother who comes and spreads her love and tells him everything will be alright the monsters will go, love is not to lie and say there is no monster, love is to say, yes, I know there are monsters, but they will go because you are stronger than them, love is acknowledging the dark and being just love dissolves the dark and cast it away, so what I want to say, my point is in all of this, is: love each other, send out love to each other, send out love to those who are in anger, who are despair and fear, and those who are in the dark of ignorance not knowing where they are going, please send love, spread this love, love is rapping the person or the object of your love within your energy field, extending your energy field to take within you the fears, the weaknesses, the vulnerability of the other one and within yourself transmute it, love can dissolve anything, love is a high frequency, it is also vehicle that transports a soul, so I was talking about love and asking you to send out love where it is needed by creating this sphere around you filled with love and extending it until it reaches like a tunnel or conduit or a string someone or a group of people, and wrap them with it and send them love and this is healing the world and making everybody stronger and connecting with each other, love is grace, love is peace, love is joy, I wanted you to feel this, I wanted you to think about it, just for an instant being in a space of love, just think about this, and when you think about this, when you feel love within you, you are protected, you are invincible, you're not subject to mind control, you know, and you see, and you do, you act for the greater good of these species, there is so much to say about love, we live by its code, and we act within its wisdom, these are my words about love for tonight, I will speak about this topic forever.

Q: Tell us about the Envoy program please.

Thor Han: You choose, you decide. It is a call, once in your life you owe service to the universe because everything is a flow, and you choose the way you want to perform this service, you ask if you think you want to transfer into an avatar on another world that needs help you request, and it is usually accepted, sometimes it is refused when you are too vulnerable or not mature enough in your evolution, but this goes with it because when you are not mature enough you do not want to go do this because it is very difficult, it requires courage and I honor all this courage.

Q: Are these pods on the orbital ship or the pods on the planet the person is from?

Thor Han: We never take the risk to put pods on ships, this would be an unreasonable and silly decision because this would make the pods with the people vulnerable, they are on the planets very well-kept in secret places, even if the enemy would assault the planet they wouldn't find them or with difficulty, we do not put pods in the ship, this is dangerous, the ship can be destroyed.

Q: How is the soul extracted and put into the human body?

Thor Han: When you decide, it is time to respond to the call of your mission, you go to a certain place, I will not disclose, you go through medical testing, and you are approved then the time comes when you have a preparation first where you choose among a different range of possibilities, where you decide to go, this is often decided with the loved ones because the loved ones usually accompany the envoy. When you have chosen your destination, the bloodline you will incarnate into because these are bloodlines that have been prepared by The Council of Five as you know, you choose the bloodline, you choose the call, you choose the mission regard to your abilities and the loved ones around you need to agree because they will be involved in it, there can be four people involved in following you then you are put in this pod, the body is prepared with a healthy diet before and the system is cleared of all food, and liquids, then the body is in the pod and the pod are filled with the life support, it is a gel, a liquid, more looking like a gel, life support substance that will fill your whole body to maintain it alive and pristine but in stasis, previous to your body being filled with this life support gel, you will be administered something a product that will put you, it is not a sleep, it is a loss of consciousness, and when I say loss you lose it, it is taken of you, and it goes into a conduit, it is a quantum as you say technology that projects you in the conduit and the conduit are connected by resonance to a portal, this portal will send you to the avatar wherever it is, also by resonance, you are assisted in this process by some technicians from The council of Five, from this organization who prepare the bloodlines, and also you will reconnect with your beloved, as I said it can be up to four people, others can join after, but it is for people maximum to come with you, and once you will be into the avatar, the compression of consciousness is such as unfortunately you forget, the more these avatars are enhanced genetically the better the consciousness has the ability to remember, but this is an improvement that comes slowly and slowly, have you noticed the last generation of your children remember better? This is because the bloodlines have been enhanced and this is the process.

Q: Once the Envoys finish their mission on Terra, can they go back to Terra for a friendly visit, and do they keep their last mission memories?

Thor Han: Of course you keep your memories, but you are allowed to come and visit not physically because of the law of intervention forbids it, but you can come and visit the orbital stations and if you have authorization and just go near, if you wish so, but usually unless they have ties with Terrans, usually they do not want to, because it is difficult, and it is usually memories of something difficult, they do not want to come back most of the time and I understand.

Q: How does this person integrate thinking that they're going to die and go back to source, but instead they go back to a body in a pod?

Thor Han: As soon as you leave the avatar your memory is complete, you have access to it again, so you suddenly realize, you may be surprised in the first seconds, but this goes very fast, the incarnation in these avatars because they are very primitive doesn't allow the whole memory to be pristine, the memory is altered.

Q: Are the Envoys who are still in a pod part of a military program, or are they all what we call civilians?

Thor Han: There are many civilians, militaries, scientists for many castes of the society.

Q: If they're chosen for special abilities?

Thor Han: They need to be validated first because this is free will, you are not chosen, if you are chosen, you do not have free will, and we do not go by this, we go by free will, if we want to do something we do it, if we do not want we do not do it, this is the base of our society. Different species have different ways of doing it, Ummites and Silosi do pods, humanoid species usually do pods, the Ohorai do differently, those Terrans call Arcturians in your language. Ohorai do different, they do not need pods they just de-densify and re-densify in an avatar, we cannot do that, but there is a cast of population from Ohora, they are the Glaidean and they use pods.

Q: Out of all the people on Earth what is the percentage that are starseeds?

Thor Han: This comes and goes because some are born, some are disincorporating, it is around and there isn't a fixed number. I wouldn't be able to give a number, this is fluctuating all the time. Activation sends a signal, and we identify you, we locate you, activation, which is awakening sends out an activated signal, and we locate where they are, although it is known, but the activation signal sends it, that this envoy is operational, we know where all are because there are records of course, but the activation signal allows us or the Council of Five or whoever is linked to them to make contact and to work with them, starting downloading frequency, that's as long as we don't have the activation signal it will don't do anything, we cannot, so you need to activate each other, and many of you have this mission of awakening others and this is good.
